One of our superintendent's hobbies is taking movies of his grandchildren, Norman, Elizabeth, and Julie Miller.

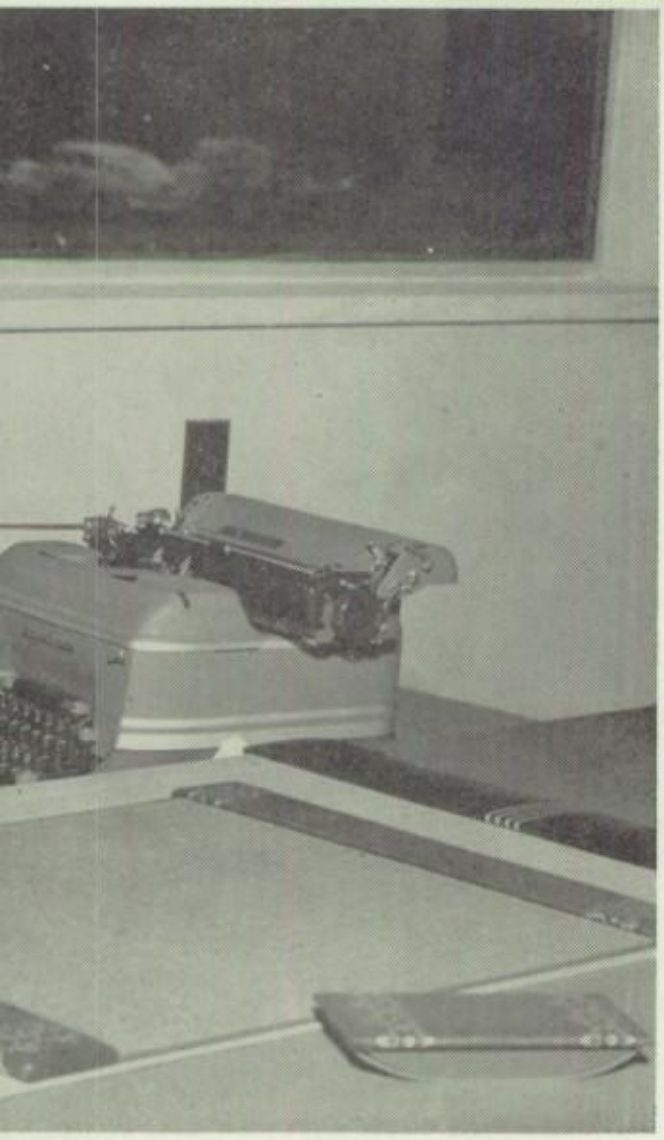
DEDICATION

Fred R. Powers

Burton Jenne, representing the Chamber of Commerce, presents the "Man of the Year" ring to Mr. Powers.

The Powers family at the Dedication: Harry Powers, Mrs. F. R. Powers, F. R. Powers, Mary Powers Miller, Julie Miller, Parker Miller.

At the dedication of the Powers Elementary Building, Mr. Carl Deeds, president of the board of education, and Miss Steele make the presentation.



Mr. and Mrs. Powers beside the bronze plaque

In appreciation of his sincere interest in boys and girls and of his devoted service to the Amherst Public Schools and the community, we proudly dedicate the 1953 Amherstonian to Mr. Fred R. Powers, our esteemed superintendent of schools and Amherst's "Man of The Year."

SPEECH AND DRAMATICS

Thespian Troupe 730 has been a very active group this year. In November they presented the full-length play, "I Remember Mama," with great success. Next on the schedule was a series of three radio broadcasts over station WEOL for National Education Week. Then came the "I Speak for Democracy" contest. The two winners delivered their speeches over the radio, and the finalist participated in the county contest in which he was also the victor. Two Prince of Peace contests were held with ten people competing. One contestant was the county winner and later spoke in the District Contest in Toledo. During the present semester all speech students have participated in panel discussions on a variety of subjects ranging from "Dating" to "Africa Today." Two groups appeared before the P.T.A. with the topics, "What Youth Wants from Its World," and "Youth's Attitude Towards Religion," the latter in collaboration with the Amherst Ministerial Association. During the remainder of the year the speech classes worked on final speeches, readings, and one-act plays.

SENIOR BAND

The 1952-53 band had a very successful season. Under the direction of their new leader, Mr. Petersen, about eighty musicians spent the year almost "blowing their heads off."

Perhaps you noticed the snappy formations at football games and the new zip to the music at rallies, chapels, games and concerts. It all came from practice, practice, and a little more of the same.

The band took part in half-time shows at games, pep rallies, several concerts, and a band festival in Wellington.

Officers of the organization were David Vandersall, president; Sara Oertell, vice-president; Dagny Nylen, secretary-treasurer; and Robert Engle, student director.

A CAPPELLA CHOIR AND CHORUSES

Two big events highlighted the year for the vocal department—the "Messiah" in December, and the "Pseudo Circus" in April. Both of these programs were presented by the combined junior and senior high choruses under the direction of Mrs. Wellman.

The boys' and girls' choruses appeared separately at some of the high school assemblies. Twenty-six members of the Girls' Chorus traveled to Cleveland to attend the opera, "Carmen."

Junior Chorus members, chosen by tryouts like members of the A Cappella Choir, practiced once a week, preparing for the day when they might join the high school group.

Besides singing at assemblies, P.T.A., the school dedication, Baccalaureate, and Commencement, the A Cappella Choir had several social events—an initiation party, a Christmas caroling party, and the annual spring supper. Officers for the year were as follows: Jim Borer, president; Edna Vollmer, vice-president; Nancy Mollison, secretary; and Dawn Brainerd, treasurer. At the awards assembly, eight members received pins signifying two years' service.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Had you looked in Miss Steele's office about eight o'clock every Thursday morning this year, you probably would have heard Dave Vandersall calling a group of students to order. Why? You would have been looking in on a Student Council meeting. You would have seen secretary-treasurer, Nancy Sharp, jotting down notes, and vice-president, Donna Jacopin, looking alert.

You would have heard the group making plans for projects such as sponsoring dances, taking tickets, selling programs, decorating goalposts, staging a talent show, sponsoring basketball and football banquets, and posting guards at each of the study hall doors.

Had you followed the council members from the meetings, you would have heard them making announcements, and quietly going about their special projects.

Did you know who helped the grade school teachers at noon, who checked lockers, straightened books, kept the rest rooms looking spic and span, kept the service chart up to date, polished athletic trophies? Yes, you've guessed right—the Student Council.

QUIZ BEE

"Quiz Bee—Monday at 3:30" was an announcement often seen on the study hall board. This group of students interested in current events met with Mrs. Wingate once a week to prepare for the Conference Quiz Bee.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

"How do we keep their attention?" was one of the problems the F.T.A. discussed and tried to solve at the bi-weekly meetings. The future teachers had to cope with many such problems while substituting for absent instructors.

Officers of the club were co-chairmen, Mary Durling and Allen Easterwood; secretary, Joyce Myers; and treasurer, Don Zuspan.

EL CIRCULO ESPANOL

"Ole, Ole! Muy bien! Viva el matador!" were the cries heard during the mock bull fight at the Spanish Club Fiesta. Sherrill Menz reigned as Queen of the Fiesta.

The Spanish part of the modern language assembly consisted of a playlet, "There's Always Manana," several songs by a group of gay caballeros, and the ever-popular Mexican Hat Dance.

At the noon meetings of El Circulo Espanol, the programs included travel talks about Spanish-American countries and Spain, Spanish skits and games.

Leading the activities of the club were Nancy Springer, president; Marilyn Hogrefe, vice-president; Sara Oertell, secretary; and Arlene Sender, treasurer.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

"C'est la guerre. Cherchez la femme. Viva la France." Those were just a few of the proverbs quoted at the noon meetings of Le Cercle Francais. The messieurs and the mesdemoiselles oftentimes answered roll call by quoting French proverbs or other well-known French sayings. Favorites on the French Hit Parade were the songs, "La Seine." "Valentine," and "Aupres de Ma Blonde." Other program numbers included dialogues and games in French. At the Spanish-French Fiesta, the menu featured the famous French cuisine. Art Engle was crowned King of the Fiesta.

Officers of the French Club were Dagny Nylen, president; David Vandersall, vice-president; Mary Durling, secretary; and Miss Murray, advisor.

LATIN CLUB

"Cupid and Psyche"
Carol Berry, Nancy Sharp, Shirley Slack, Beverly Kothe, Kim Brown

"Ab ovo usque ad mala" (from eggs to apples) was the theme of all great banquets of ancient Rome, but the Romans certainly didn't have anything more than the Amherst High Latin students. The annual Roman Banquet was as festive as any similar occasion in old "Roma," with the sophomores at their best in togis and stolis and the freshmen doing their best as Romani Servi (Roman slaves).

Latin students directed by Mrs. Thutt did a good job of educating their fellow students on Roman mythology and customs at the assembly program. A pantomime portrayal of "Cupid and Psyche," living pictures of Roman gods, and a mock broadcast of a football game from ancient Rome made many students realize that Latin isn't such a dead language after all.

Officers of the club, David Drake (praetor), Richard Wallace (quaestor), and Barbara Jenne (scriba) performed their many duties "cum laude."

Letter Perfect

COMMERCIAL CLUB

Speed, accuracy, efficiency—these are the goals of the Commercial Club, organized for girls who have a common interest in preparing to be "the secretaries of tomorrow." Yes, the commercial students aim to be letter perfect.

The group, under the leadership of Mr. Simpson, is composed of all advanced students of commercial subjects.

At the noon meetings, talks by local businessmen, films, and group discussions kept the commercial students well-informed about the latest trends in office practice and business methods.

Everyone enjoyed the field trips to the Thew Shovel Company in Lorain and the Federal Reserve Bank in Cleveland. These trips gave the students a chance to learn what will be expected from them in the business world.

GIRLS' CLUB

At the organization meeting of the Girls' Club, Sharyll Brunner was chosen president; Pat Finlay, vice-president; Nancy Sharp, secretary; and Kathleen Finnegan, treasurer.

The club was divided into three divisions—athletic, service, and arts and crafts. The athletic group chose Sharon Brunner, chairman; the service group chose Nancy Springer; the arts and crafts group, Connie Washka.

Advisors for the groups were Miss Spitler, athletic; Mrs. Maxwell, service; and Mrs. Holcomb, arts and crafts.

The Girls' Club met twice a month on Friday morning.

Highlight of the social calendar was the annual Sweetheart Dance.

HI-Y

"Clean speech, clean living, clean sports, and clean scholarship" is the platform of the Hi-Y. Outstanding programs were given by an F.B.I. representative and a state highway patrolman. Recreational activities included swimming, basketball, baseball, and rifle and pistol shooting. The big project of the club was assisting the P.T.A. Carnival by taking charge of various booths.

Hi-Y officers were president, Ed Brandon; vice-president, Bob Berry; secretary, Bob Jenkins; treasurer, Tom Dute; chaplain, Jim Borer; and faculty advisors, Mr. Tousley and Mr. Lyle. Bob Berry was elected vice-president of the district comprising Huron, Lorain, and Erie Counties.

The last 12 weeks the club has been busy selling pen and pencil sets to raise money to send some of the boys to summer camp.

CONGRATULATIONS SENIORS!

- High School over, your next step is important.
- The demand for office personnel is at an all-time high.
- Why not capitalize on this demand by preparing for YOUR choice of these good positions?

If we offered you $500 to enter school in June instead of waiting until September, would you do it?

"TIME IS MONEY." The time you would save by starting in June would easily be worth $500 to you.

For Proof . . . Write, Phone, or Visit
